For Immediate Release:

PacWest Machinery Announces Distribution Agreement with Metso Minerals

Seattle, WA (April 28, 2017) – PacWest Machinery has announced the signing of a distribution agreement with Metso Minerals. "We are delighted to partner with Metso to expand our product line-up to better serve the aggregate processing industries, among others. PacWest and Metso share the common goals of delivering quality products and providing excellent customer service," said Jolene Logue, president of PacWest Machinery.

PacWest Machinery will provide sales, parts and service support for Metso equipment. Along with Metso crushing and screening equipment, PacWest will stock machine replacement parts and wear items to minimize down time and provide the highest possible level of customer satisfaction. "PacWest Machinery has developed an outstanding reputation for professionalism and responsive customer support, and their personnel have valuable experience serving the aggregate processing industries. They do business the right way, and we are excited about this partnership," said Simon Pelletier, Metso's senior vice president of the USA and Canada Market Areas.

PacWest Machinery provides sales, rental and aftermarket support for a full line of general production, road machinery, compact equipment and specialty machines from leading suppliers including Volvo Construction Equipment, Roadtec, GOMACO, Etnyre, Tymco, SDLG, Furukawa, Genesis and others. PacWest Machinery provides equipment and aftermarket services from four facilities located in Seattle and Spokane, Washington, and Portland and Eugene, Oregon plus responsive support from remote service technicians and an extensive mobile service fleet. PacWest Machinery is owned by the Joshua Green Corporation and company management.
